

FLOOD RESILIENCE OFFICER – TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK (Morris County): The Flood Resilience Officer is the principal municipal employee responsible for flood mitigation efforts. Primary responsibilities include writing and administering federal grants, management of the Township's CRS program, interacting with residents, OEM, DPW and all municipal departments. Applicants must have experience with flood plain management, excellent written and verbal communication skills, strong organizational skills; a CFM or ability to obtain a CFM is strongly preferred. Letters of interest and resumes will be received by Adam Brewer, Township Manager, 530 Newark-Pompton Turnpike, Pompton Plains, NJ 07444 or abrewer@peqtwp.org. Salary will be DOE/DOQ and the Township is an Equal Opportunity Employer.